Christian Time Management

8.

You see a meal that appeals for a little while and then vanishes. You don't number the days, that may gain a heart of desire. Oh very careful, then, how you live — not as slaves but as sons, ruling the rest of every generation, because the days are few. Let our people learn to devote themselves to good works, as if to help cases of urgent need, and not be unfeeling.

9.

The FOUNDATION of Christian Time Management

"Walk fast the steps of God, and all these things will be added to you."

10.

Guiding principle of effective time management

11.

I. Begin with the end in mind

12.

Review of how we managed our time (in this body)

1. Colossians 3:23-24
23 If what has been built survives, the builder will receive a reward.
24 If it is burned up, the builder will suffer loss but yet will be saved—more through fire than through water.
3. Proverbs 23:5-6
5 Do not eat the food of wrath, and do not desire his delicacies, for you will become an insubordinate man and will be despised.
6 Do not be angry, for anger leads to wrath, and wrath leads to sin, and sin leads to death.

Review of how we managed our time (in this body)

2. Corinthians 5:1-2
1 So we make it our goal to please him, whether we are at home or in the body or away from it.
2 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each of us may receive what is due us for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad.

14.

II. If needed, adjust your priorities

15.

Who you are, why you're here

Epistle to the Romans 13:14
14 For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

16.

III. Keep your eyes on the prize(s)

17.

"If you read history you'll find that the Christians who did the most for this present world were precisely those who thought most of the next. It is since Christians have largely ceased to think of the other world that they (we) have become so ineffective in this one."
C.S. Lewis

Christian Time Management

Our words are foolish as in our wisdom. "I have said it all, and I am full of wisdom," says the fool. The more he speaks, the more he is considered to be full of wisdom. Thus he is like a man who builds a tower on sand, and the tide will sweep it away. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each of us may receive what is due us for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad.
