FOSTERING
Adoption: Becoming DOERS of the Word

A most important reading from James 1

- Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.
- Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like.
- But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it (James 1:25), he will be blessed and continue in it (James 1:25)—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed in what they do.

DOING the Word: 3 Critical Obedience Tests

James 1

- Those who consider themselves religious and yet do not keep a tight rein on their tongues restrain their ears; their mouths are open like tombs. (James 1:26)
- Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like.
- But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it (James 1:25), he will be blessed and continue in it (James 1:25)—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed in what they do.

You paid much too high a price for me
Your tears, your blood, the pain
To have me and just stand at times
Yet never truly changed
You deserve a very home
That won't ignore your sacrifice
Because you paid much too high a price
