2. "A hundred years from now it will not matter what my bank account was, the sort of house I lived in, or the kind of car I drove, but the words may be different because I was important in the life of a child."
Dale Hudson

3. "Children are like wet cement. But remember, we only have a short window of time until the wet cement turns to concrete. We must impress God's Word wisdom and ways into their lives while we have the opportunity."
Dale Hudson

4. "It's easier to build strong children than to repair broken men."
Frederick Douglass
