Week 6:
Righteousness vs. Contract
Galatians 3:15-29

8. Contract vs. Covenant
Definitions and differences

9. Key thought:
If righteousness was a contract between me and God, I'd surely be dead for past performance.

10. W. 15-16: God's Covenant with Abraham
The Abrahamic covenant was made with Abraham, not with Isaac or Jacob. It was made with Abraham because he was the only one who believed in God. The covenant was made with Abraham because he was the only one who believed in God. The covenant was made with Abraham because he was the only one who believed in God.

11. W. 19-24: The contractual reality of the law
The law was given to Israel as a temporary measure to keep them from sinning. It was not given to them as a permanent law. The law was given to them as a temporary measure to keep them from sinning. It was not given to them as a permanent law. The law was given to them as a temporary measure to keep them from sinning. It was not given to them as a permanent law.

12. Saying it another way
The law was given to Israel as a temporary measure to keep them from sinning. It was not given to them as a permanent law. The law was given to them as a temporary measure to keep them from sinning. It was not given to them as a permanent law. The law was given to them as a temporary measure to keep them from sinning. It was not given to them as a permanent law.

It was not given to them as a permanent law. The law was given to them as a temporary measure to keep them from sinning. It was not given to them as a permanent law.

15. W. 25-29: Righteousness is the fruit of faith
Righteousness is not something we can earn by following the law. It is something we receive as a gift from God through faith in Jesus Christ. Righteousness is not something we can earn by following the law. It is something we receive as a gift from God through faith in Jesus Christ. Righteousness is not something we can earn by following the law. It is something we receive as a gift from God through faith in Jesus Christ.

Week 6:
Summary Contract vs. Covenant
Galatians 3:15-29

17. I'm a lawbreaker... period
But the mercy of God in Christ has freed me from the law's penalty. In Christ, I'm seen as righteous (declared not-guilty) and invited into God's presence.
